EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

The City of Kokomo is committed to assuring equal housing opportunity for its residents as governed by the Title VIII Fair Housing Act and the Fair Housing Amendment Act of 1988.

The 1988 amendment significantly strengthens the original act by extending coverage to include handicapped individuals and families with children. This signals a renewed commitment to achieve fair housing choice.

Kokomo’s Human Resources Department, located in City Hall, assists citizens in maintaining their rights under these laws.

FAIR HOUSING CHOICE

The laws assuring fair housing choice state that persons of similar income levels must have the same housing choices available to them regardless of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin.

Fair housing is both a right and a responsibility. Anyone who believes he or she is being discriminated against in housing choice, should contact the Kokomo Human Rights Commission.

KOKOMO HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

Since 1969, the City of Kokomo has supported the operation of the Kokomo Human Rights Commission. The Commission works in conjunction with the Department of Human Resources, who is dedicated to the principle of equal opportunity for all citizens of Kokomo. The Commission is charged with the task of investigating complaints regarding Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity.

Staff is available to process complaints and make inquiries and recommendations concerning equal rights and fair treatment. The Kokomo Human Rights Commission can be reached between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.
